LAKE MICHIGAN LIGHTHOUSE CRUISE

Thursday, Friday & Saturday – June 24, 25 & 26

This cruise is designed for a motor coach group seeking a one-of-a-kind lighthouse adventure.

This tour will depart from Charlevoix, MI and end in Holland, MI with an overnight stay in Ludington. This is a great photo op!!!

In Traverse City you will visit the Music House Museum featuring antique musical instruments and music making machines from 1830 through 1930.

The Sugar Beach Hotel is on Traverse Bay and features a beautiful beach, an indoor pool for your enjoyment and very nice rooms. (So bring your swimsuit) They serve a very nice breakfast.

FRIDAY

Our cruise on will take approximately 8 hours. Along the way we will see 9 Lake Michigan Lighthouses:

Charlevoix Pierhead,	Point Betsie	Ludington
Grand Traverse Point	Frankfort
North Manitou	Manistee
South Manitou	Big Sauble

We will dock at the city Marina in Ludington.

SATURDAY

Our cruise will take approximately 6 hours. We will see another 5 Lake Michigan Lighthouses:

Little Sable	Grand Haven
White River	Holland
Muskegon

We will dock in Holland and board motor coach for Durand

This will be a great opportunity to see 14 of Michigan's most beautiful lighthouses along some of Michigan's most beautiful shoreline including Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore.

LIGHT HOUSE GUIDE Our lighthouse guide, again this year, is Jerry Roach. He is the owner of The Huron Lights Gift Shop & Museum in Alpena, a member of the Great Lakes Light House Association and the author/publisher of 3 guides to lighthouse in Michigan. His books will be available on board.

The Keweenaw Star is a Coast Guard certified vessel She accommodates 145 passengers, 110 feet long, and is equipped with heat and air conditioning. Her pilots are certified Great Lake captains
